GRADUATION CEREMONY OF FLYING INSTRUCTORS COURSE HELD AT PAF ACADEMY, RISALPUR

RISALPUR 11 JUNE, 2013: The Graduation Ceremony of No 127 Flying Instructors Course was held at Flying Instructors School, PAF Academy, Risalpur. Air Marshal Waseem ud Din, Deputy Chief of the Air Staff (Operations), was the Chief Guest on the occasion.

Addressing the graduating Instructor Pilots, the Chief Guest urged upon qualified Flying Instructors to be a true source of motivation and inspiration for student pilots. He further added that the Instructors' diligent efforts in moulding the personality of student pilots into a true professional would indeed shape their destiny in future. He emphasized that current technological advancement rendered PAF to be more advanced in meeting the future challenges. Only professional excellence, unquestionable integrity and teamwork could guarantee that Pakistan Air Force would retain its legacy of excellence. He also highlighted the importance of safe operations and the role which could be played by the Instructors in achieving them. He stressed that by maintaining highest standards of flight safety we could conserve human and material resources and thus maintain our operational capability.

The Chief Guest awarded certificates and trophies to the graduating officers. Flight Lieutenant Bilal Ahmed won the Chief of Air Staff's Trophy for best all round performance in the course. The graduating batch of pilots belonged to Pakistan Air Force, Pakistan Army, and Pakistan Navy.

Earlier on his arrival, the Chief Guest was received by Air Vice Marshal Rashid Kamal, Air Officer Commanding, PAF Academy, Risalpur.
