

ISLAMABAD: One of the 02 PAF C-130 aircraft being loaded at PAF Base Nur Khan with relief goods for people of earthquake hit areas of Nepal. (26-04-2015)

Kathmandu: Relief goods despatched from Pakistan by 02 PAF C-130 aircraft for the people of Nepal being unloaded at Tribhuvan International Airport, Kathmandu. (26-04-2015)

Kathmandu: A group of 39 Pakistani nationals evacuated from Kathmandu by Pakistan Air Force C-130 aircraft, seen off by Pakistani ambassador Mr Arshed Saud Khosa . (26-04-2015)

PAF DESPATCHES RELIEF GOODS TO KATHMANDU (NEPAL)

26 April, 2015: On the instruction of Prime Minister of Pakistan Muhammad Nawaz Sharif, two C-130 aircraft of Pakistan Air Force carrying more than 50,000 lbs of relief goods arrived at the Tribhuvan International Airport, Kathmandu today. The relief goods included ready to eat meals, mineral water, tents, blankets, mobile hospital, medicines and life saving drugs. Additionally doctors and rescue teams from Pak Army also arrived in same aircraft to assist the relief efforts in Nepal.

On return from Kathmandu 39 Pakistani nationals stranded in Kathmandu were evacuated and brought back safely to PAF Base Nur Khan.