AIR CHIEF HONOURED AS GUEST OF HONOUR AT GRADUATION CEREMONY AT RAF CRANWELL

ISLAMABAD 30 OCTOBER, 2015:- Air Chief Marshal Sohail Aman, Chief of the Air Staff, Pakistan Air Force was the guest of honour at the graduation ceremony held at RAF Cranwell today. Air Chief Marshal Sir Andrew Pulford, Chief of Air Staff, Royal Air Force was also present at the occasion. The Air Chief awarded branch insignias to the graduating officers and trophies to the distinction holders.

RAF College Cranwell is a Royal Air Force station in Lincolnshire, which has a long and distinguished history in Royal Air Force. It trains the RAFs new officers and is considered to be the spiritual home of the RAF. PAF Academy Risalpur and RAF College Cranwell have cordial relations and exchange postings/ visit programme has been a regular feature since long. Instructor Pilots and officers from other branches have been visiting each other's institutions on regular basis. This programme has not only helped in learning from each other experiences but also strengthened mutual relations between the two Air Forces.
