

FAIRFORD (UK): School children showing their enthusiasm after seeing PAF C-130 aircraft, participating in Royal International Air Tattoo Show-2016 being held at Royal Air Force Base, Fairford (UK). (09-07-16)

FAIRFORD (UK): Visitors queuing up to see the PAF C-130 aircraft, participating in Royal International Air Tattoo Show-2016 being held at Royal Air Force Base, Fairford (UK). (09-07-16)

PAF C-130 ATTRACTS HUGE CROWDS AT ROYAL AIR TATTOO SHOW 2016

ISLAMABAD 09 JULY, 2016: PAF C-130 aircraft participating in Royal International Air Show-2016 has become the center of attraction and drawing large crowds at the show, The especially painted aircraft is a tribute to the resilience of our nation and has aptly portrayed the sacrifices of Pakistani people and the Armed Forces in fighting the menace of terrorism in general and in Operation Zarb-e-Azb in particular. Thousands of visitors from all across the world are taking keen interest in the artistically painted PAF C-130 aircraft. Various documentaries and promos are also shown to the visitors regarding Pakistan Air Force which are appreciated by the people of all ages. To majority of the visitors, this Pakistani aircraft is the star of the show and likely to be the winner of this mega event. More than 50 countries from across the world with more than 200 aircraft are participating in the show.