AIR CHIEF VISITS AN OPERATIONAL BASE DURING THE EXERCISE HIGH MARK-2016

ISLAMABAD 25 SEPTEMBER, 2016: Air Chief Marshal Sohail Aman, Chief of the Air Staff, Pakistan Air Force visited an Operational Base during the Exercise High Mark-2016 today. He was given a comprehensive briefing on the first stage of High Mark at this occasion. The visit was undertaken to assess the operational readiness and training standards of PAF in this significant exercise which started this week.

The Air Chief met with the combat crew participating in this exercise and appreciated their motivation and resolve to carry out the assigned task in a befitting manner. He expressed his satisfaction on the operational readiness and training of the PAF combat crew and reiterated that we will protect the sovereignty and integrity of our motherland at every cost. He further said that the security of this sacred land is the cardinal principle of the faith of each individual in PAF and PAF is ever ready to give a befitting response to any aggression.
