JAN JUKUBCO REMAINS INVINCIBLE IN MALAM JABBA INTERNATIONAL ALPINE SKI CUP

MALAM JABBA 30 JANUARY, 2017: Jan Jukubco of Slovakia remained invincible on the last day of the Malam Jabba International Alpine Ski Cup being held at the scenic resort of Malam Jabba, Swat. Slovakian skier outclassed his rivals in the 2nd race of men's Slalom category as well and got 1st position in this momentous international event. IvanKovasnyuk and Vasyle Telychuk of Ukraine repeated the history and finished 2nd & 3rd respectively.

In the 2nd race of Women Slalom category, Ukraine proved their dominance on the slope once again as two Ukraine skiers Tetyana Tikun and Anastasia Gorbunova got the 1st and 2nd positions respectively. Pakistani talented international skier Ifrah Wali had a wonderful race and remained 3rd in the category.

50 male and 10 female Skiers from Pakistan and 08 different countries including Morocco, Slovakia, Sri Lanka, Greece, Afghanistan, Turkey, Ukraine and Tajikistan are participating for the first time in this historic event at Malam Jabba. This event would benefit the tourism industry of Pakistan and revive the international sports competitions in the country.
