

Islamabad: Mushahid Hussain Syed, Chairman Senate's Standing Committee on Defence along with other members of Committee calling on Air Chief Marshal Sohail Aman, Chief of the Air Staff, Pakistan Air Force at Air Headquarters, Islamabad. (17-02-2017)

Islamabad: Air Chief Marshal Sohail Aman, Chief of the Air Staff, Pakistan Air Force along with Senate's Standing Committee on Defence during their visit to Air Headquarters, Islamabad. (17-02-2017)

THE SENATE'S STANDING COMMITTEE ON DEFENCE VISITS AIR HEADQUARTERS AND PAC KAMRA

Islamabad, 17 February, 2017: The Senate's Standing Committee on Defence headed by Chairman, Mr Mushahid Hussain Syed visited Air Headquarters Islamabad today. On arrival at Air Headquarters, the distinguished guests were received by Air Chief Marshal Sohail Aman, Chief of the Air Staff, Pakistan Air Force.

The Committee was given a detailed briefing regarding the role and task of the Pakistan Air Force. While talking at the occasion, the Air Chief talked about the PAF role in the aerial defence of Pakistan. He also highlighted the pivotal role played by PAF in Operation Zarb-e-Azb in synergy with other services. Mr Mushahid Hussain Syed lauded the sound professionalism of PAF personnel as well as its commendable contributions in safeguarding Pakistan's national security. He acknowledged the role played by PAF in recent times and termed it as one of the best air forces of the world.

Later on, the Committee also visited the Pakistan Aeronautical Complex, Kamra where Air Marshal Arshad Malik, Chairman PAC Kamra received them. The Committee was given a detailed briefing about the role and task of Pakistan Aeronautical Complex, Kamra. During the visit, the committee also witnessed the production of state-of-the-art JF-17 Thunder aircraft and appreciated the performance of established facilities and acknowledged the role played by Pakistan Aeronautical Complex Kamra in self reliance and enhancing indigenous capabilities in the field of aviation.