

Begum Farzana Qamar, President, Pakistan Air Force Women Association (PAFWA) along with the faculty members and graduating students at the Graduation Ceremony of PAF Finishing School held at Air Headquarters, Islamabad. (09.01.2012)

ISLAMABAD 09 JANUARY, 2012:- Graduation Ceremony of the 31st batch of students of the PAF Finishing School Islamabad was held at the Air Headquarters Officers' Mess here on Monday, 09 January, 2012.

Begum Farzana Qamar, President, Pakistan Air Force Women Association (PAFWA) was the chief guest on the occasion. She awarded the certificates to the graduating students.

Begum Farzana Qamar said, "The womenfolk have a vital role to play in the betterment of any society. The saying, 'Hands that rock the cradle, rule the world' is an apt description of women's contribution in shaping the destiny of a nation. In fact, no society can afford to ignore women that account for half of its population".

The PAF Finishing School was established in July 1996. It offers various courses in communication skills, languages, management, art of self presentation, domestic science, general culture, cuisine, protocol, art, child care, introduction to psychology and spiritual enrichment.

PAF Finishing School an institute which is the first of its kind in Asia is a step by Pakistan Air Force towards the promotion of education and literacy in the country.

Earlier, the director of the school presented a report that highlighted the main aspects of the training, which are aimed at transforming young girls into useful members of the society.