AIR CHIEF STRESSES UPON HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT OF PAF

Islamabad 29 January 2011: Air Chief Marshal Rao Qamar Suleman, Chief of the Air Staff, Pakistan Air Force visited PAF Base Malir (Karachi) to inspect the Air Defence net work and its ancillary units functioning in Southern areas of the country. Air Chief lauded the operational preparedness of PAF Air Defence units.

While addressing Airmen during a formal gathering the Air Chief said, “Our important asset is our human resource. PAF will therefore continue to focus on its development and training. At the same time we will continue to look after the needs of our personnel, both in uniform as well in civilian cadres, because we believe that a satisfied human resource will give better performance”. He further added, “PAF will also continue to develop new capabilities and make all efforts to improve the knowledge of its human resource through education and training. It is the duty of all Airmen to make use of the education and training imparted to them to become more efficient and effective”.
